Riverside Youth Chess Association and the Riverside Public Library are co-sponsoring a chess club on Saturdays from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. and on Sundays from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m., beginning this Saturday, December 20th at the Orange Terrace Library.

Nationally ranked chess players Sunil and Nisha Deolalikar from Poly High School, as well as instructor Kevin Ho will be starting the chess club. Players from beginner to expert are welcome to come by for a lesson or a game. The Riverside Youth Chess Association, which organizes local tournaments and encourages youth participation in the challenge game of chess, has very generously donated chess sets for the establishment of the Riverside Public Library's Chess Clubs.

This program is free and available on a first come first served basis.

Chess Club at the Main Library continues to meet on Sundays from 1:00-3:00 p.m.
